SENATOR MILLER'S CANDIDACY.
To The Editor of The Tribune.
Sir: I desire to second cordially the suggestion in the "Notes" of THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE that Senator John F. Miller, of California, be given a place on the next National Republican ticket. A long residence on the Pacific coast convinces me that some concession must be made to win those States back to their allegiance to the Republican party. To this end no step would be so popular as that suggested. Senator Miller is a man of fine intellectual attainments, of spotless reputation, with a brilliant record both upon the battle-field and in the halls of legislation. His political views are so great that his name would be sure to carry the day.

Oregon and Nevada as well. Very respectfully,
New-York, July 30, 1883. C. H. F.

PROPERTY IN HUMAN BONES.
To the Editor of The Tribune.
SIR: I have a few human bones in my possession. Now, if it be true, as Governor Butler says, that the law does not recognize property in such things, could any one with impunity destroy or carry them off to the State of New York? I have no objection to this good law of the Governor's or is it mere talk?

A CLERGYMAN ENGAGED IN A FIGHT.
TROUBLE ABOUT TRUNKS AND A CHECK—SEVERAL WARRANTS OUT.
The usually quiet village of Katonah, Westchester County, was agitated on Wednesday morning by a quarrel between a clergyman and the proprietor of the Avery House. The Rev. William L. Moore who used to have been the pastor of a Baptist church Presbyterian Church at Jersey City, engaged board of directors at the Avery House in June for himself and his family, agreeing to pay by the month for the house and commodious. Shortly afterward Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Crinkhanks, the daughter, made remarks at the table offensive to members of the house. McCaull Opera Company and to others, and appealed to the Rev. Mr. Eastman, pastor of the Presbyterian Church in the village, to put a stop to the dancing and singing in the house. They finally quarrelled with some of the guests, and on Tuesday evening they informed Mr. Avery that they intended to go away on the following day. Mr. Avery proposed to make a settlement for their stay at the house at the rate, but to this Mr. Avery would not assent. Shortly afterwards Mrs. Crinkhanks went to Mr. Avery and offered a check in payment for the amount due according to their own figure; but Mr. Avery refused to accept it.

A few minutes later an expression called at the house with orders to take away the baggage of Mr. Moore and his family, but Mr. Avery would not permit him to enter the house. Mr. Moore and his

Mr. Avery then entered a truck. Mr. Moore and his son Harry tried to follow a truck of the same make to the driver's door. Mr. Avery said to the driver, "I am the driver," and then he turned to the expressman outside, and told him: "That truck can not go out until this matter is settled." Mr. Avery took hold of the handle, next to the door and pushed it open. Mr. Moore and his son Harry were at the other end. Mr. Moore then seized Mr. Avery by the throat and said, "I will choke the life out of you," and Mr. Moore, Mrs. Cruikshank's son and Miss Moore joined in the attack. Mr. Avery managed to get out of the truck. Mr. Moore and his son began to relax but held Mr. Avery's hands. Mr. Avery then dragged the trunk inside the hall and the boarders interfered and stopped the fight. Mr. Avery had the front of his shirt and the back of his coat badly torn. Mr. Moore then caused the arrest of Mr. Avery and his son Harry. Mr. Avery was taken to the Bedford Justice Building, of Bedford Station, was to have taken place yesterday, but it was postponed until to-day. In the meantime, Mr. Avery had preferred complaints against Mr. Moore, his wife and his son Harry.

The reason assigned by Mr. Avery for not accepting the check was that, about three weeks ago, a young man of respectable appearance engaged board at the house of Merritt & Searies, in Katoomba. He gave the name of W. Wyckoff, and said that he was a grandson of the late ex-Mayor William H. Wyckoff, of this city, and that his father was a Judge Wyckoff. He obtained goods on credit to the amount of $8 from Hort Brothers, of Katoomba, and, as a remembrance, he first drew a check on the Second National Bank of New York for $50. Hereafter to use, however, and made out another check for $100, saying that he might need a little change. He was given $92 in change and the check proved worthless.
